1 Who We Are

Empire Electronics B.V. values your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal data. This Privacy Policy explains which personal data we collect, why we collect it, and how we process and protect it.

When you visit our website, contact us or use our services, we process personal data in accordance with the applicable privacy legislation, including the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

2 What Personal Data We Collect

Depending on your interaction with Empire Electronics, we may collect and process the following personal data:

- * Name
- * Company name
- * Email address
- * Telephone number
- * Job title
- * IP address
- * Browser and device information
- * Any information you voluntarily provide through our contact form or by email

We only collect personal data that is necessary for providing our services or communicating with you.

3 Why We Process Your Personal Data

We use your personal data solely for the following purposes:

- * Responding to your enquiries and requests.
- * Communicating with customers and business relations.
- * Providing our products and services.
- * Improving our website and user experience.
- * Complying with legal obligations.
- * Protecting the security of our systems and website.

4 Legal Basis for Processing

We process personal data only where there is a valid legal basis, including:

- * Your consent.
- * The performance of a contract.
- * Compliance with legal obligations.
- * Our legitimate interests, such as maintaining customer relationships and improving our services.

5 Data Retention

We do not retain your personal data longer than necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, unless a longer retention period is required by law.

6 Sharing Personal Data

Empire Electronics never sells your personal data to third parties.

Where necessary to provide our services, we may share your personal data with carefully selected service providers, including:

- * Hosting providers
- * IT service providers
- * Analytics providers
- * Government authorities where required by law

Where required, we enter into data processing agreements with parties processing personal data on our behalf.

7 Data Security

We take appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect your personal data against loss, misuse, unauthorised access or disclosure.

These measures include:

- * Secure SSL (HTTPS) connections
- * Secure hosting environments
- * Access control
- * Regular software updates
- * Restricted access to personal data

8 Cookies

Our website may use cookies to ensure the proper functioning of the website and to gain insight into website usage.

For more information, please refer to our Cookie Policy.

9 Your Rights

Under the GDPR, you have the right to:

- * Access your personal data.
- * Correct inaccurate personal data.
- * Request deletion of your personal data.
- * Object to the processing of your personal data.
- * Request restriction of processing.
- * Request data portability.
- * Withdraw your consent where processing is based on consent.

If you wish to exercise any of these rights, please contact us.

10 Links to Other Websites

Our website may contain links to third-party websites. Empire Electronics is not responsible for the content or privacy practices of these external websites.

We recommend that you read the privacy policy of every website you visit.

11 Changes to This Privacy Policy

Empire Electronics reserves the right to amend this Privacy Policy whenever required by changes in legislation or our services.

The most recent version will always be available on our website.

12 Contact

If you have any questions regarding this Privacy Policy or the processing of your personal data, please contact us using the contact form on our website or through the general contact details of Empire Electronics.

If you believe that we have not handled your personal data correctly, you also have the right to lodge a complaint with the competent data protection authority.
